CALL FOR PAPER
Technology and Innovation:
New Ways to Perform Known Activities?

Benevento, 15-16 December 2020

International Conference of the Online University Giustino Fortunato of Benevento (Italy), the University Isabel I of Burgos (Spain) and IRCCS Mondino Foundation of Pavia (Italy).

The the Online University Giustino Fortunato, the University Isabel I of Burgos and IRCCS Mondino Foundation want to stimulate a debate on the use of technology in modern society. In particular, organisers invite academics and researchers to reflect on new technologies currently available on the market; on the possibilities offered by them to respond to the needs of individuals and communities; on the opportunities and risks resulting from their use; on the different harmonisation strategies of new technologies within the other scientific and humanistic disciplines.

In this context, the call on the subject “Technology and Innovation: New Ways to Perform Known Activities?” is issued.

This call for papers is aimed at highlighting analysis and deepening on one or more of the areas of interest mentioned above. The topics to be addressed, relating to all university disciplines (law, economics, engineering, medicine, informatics, psychology etc.), include:
