

4th International Scientific Conference on INCLUSION: TOOLS, PATHS AND PERSPECTIVES

Benevento (IT) – October 22, 2024

Giustino Fortunato University

In presence: Giustino Fortunato University – Benevento (IT)

In streaming: virtual room

Tuesday - October 22, 2024

8:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.: Participant registration

9:00a.m. – 9:30a.m.:Institutional greetings:

Prof. Giuseppe Acocella

Rector - Giustino Fortunato University

Prof. Ida D'Ambrosio

Rector's Delegate for Research - Giustino Fortunato University

PanellAW - 9:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. – room 23

Law and Technological Innovation

Chair: Ida D'Ambrosio

- 1. Taxation and Fiscal Incentives as Catalysts for the Growth of Start-ups:The Pivotal Role of Tax Policy in Supporting Innovation
Giambrone F.L.
- 2. The “new digital divide”: Exploring opportunities and Challenges in data monetization
Corona F.
- 3. Addressing algorithmic bias and fostering inclusion in Artificial Intelligence
Del Pizzo A.
- 4. Insurance and technological risk
Ferrari M.
- 5. Cybercrime as an obstacle to social inclusion
Verde G.
- 6. Enhancing Legal Accessibility through Legal Design and Technology: Integrating AI and Inclusivity in Modern Legal Systems
D'Onofrio C.
- 7. Crypto-assets and the opportunities they offer for financial inclusion
D'Ambrosio I.

Panel I MANAGEMENT & TECHNOLOGY 9:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. room 24

Inclusion in Management and Finance

Chair: Felice Petruzzella

- 1. Concentration and Financial Inclusion in the Italian Banking Sector: What is the Future for Popular Banks?
Migliaccio G. and Zerillo F.
- 2. Exploring social sustainability in insurance industry
Carannante M., D'Amato V., Fersini P. and Forte S.
- 3. Local communities, Cultural Heritage and Resilience: Southern Italy and Morocco compared Vitolo T. and Bertini A.

4. ESG factors and inclusion mechanisms: refugee employment as a lever for digital transformation, internationalization and social innovation
Cortese F. and Di Nardo I.
5. Credit and Catastrophic Risks: An Inclusive Bancassurance Model for SMEs
Murè P., Giorgio S., Fersini P. and Forte S.
6. Inclusive economic growth through work
Pompò M.
7. The financial effects of the code of ethics quality
Petruzzella F., Raimo N., Vitolla F. and Salvi A.

Panel I SOCIAL SCIENCES - 9:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. – room 18

Models of Inclusion

Chair: Tonia De Giuseppe

1. The cross-cutting importance of guidance in the integrated policy system
Bartoli G., Maiorano A. and Ancora A.
2. Sustainable development and new inclusive models
Catalano E. and De Giuseppe T.
3. The didactics of literature in the intercultural debate
Mignola C. and Variale M.
4. Harnessing Artificial Intelligence for Social and Educational Inclusion
Ciaschi M.
5. The impact of Virtual Museums and new technologies on inclusion
Sozio A. and DeGiuseppe T.
6. Accessible Cultural Heritage. The role of digital exhibitions in Museum
Cipparrone A.
7. The Experimentation of Inclusive E-tutoring in the Flipped Inclusion Mode
Tornusciolo S. and De Giuseppe T.
8. New technologies, inclusion and well-being in school contexts: some empirical evidence
Barone S.L.
9. Navigating the Frontlines: How Age and Experience Influence Workplace Violence in Healthcare
Ouma S. and Najdi A.

COFFEE BREAK – 11:00 a.m.

Panel II LAW - 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. – room 23

Inclusion, Society and Religion

Chair: Paolo Palumbo

1. The European Dimension of the Child's (Right to) Participation as a Declination of Inclusion: Recent Developments and Critical Issues
Vannuccini S.
2. Inclusion and gender gap
De Marco S.
3. New technologies and freedom of religion. New forms of inclusion and the need for balancing interests

Losanno A. and Scalzo M.

- 4. Protection of minors and inclusion: the commitment of the State and the Catholic Church
Iele M., Palumbo P., De Gregorio T. and Vitale A.
- 5. Pope Francis, algorethics and inclusive artificial intelligence
Santoro R.
- 6. Essential levels of social benefits, inclusion, differentiated autonomy
Maci P.
- 7. Colonia Tovar as an example of cultural and religious integration and inclusion of German migrants in Venezuela
Rodriguez A.
- 8. The Structures of Power: Inclusion in Leadership
Soricelli G.

Panel II MANAGEMENT & TECHNOLOGY - 11:30 a.m. – 1:00

p.m. – room 24

Inclusion in Public Administration

Chair: Luca Greco

- 1. Diversity and Inclusion strategies as driver for better corporate performance: evidence from the Italian context
Cirillo L.
- 2. Sustainability management cycle in local government in financial crisis. Predictive financial crisis indicators as an analysis tool for defining sustainable development targets
Infantino A.
- 3. Museum institutions between management problems, sustainability perspectives and network organizations
Leandri E.
- 4. Health mobility in the Campania Region. Analysis of the economic data of the phenomenon
Mozzillo M. and Amatucci F.M.
- 5. Inclusion in public administration: the role of "diversity management"
Palma A.
- 6. Inclusion and performance in public administration: a review of the literature
Modaffari G. and Galli A.

Panel II SOCIAL SCIENCES - 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. – room 18

Psychological Perspectives on Inclusion, Technology and Mental Health

Chair: Raffaele De Luca Picione

- 1. Eco anxiety and climate change
Perrone V., Agrati L.S. and De Luca Picione R.
- 2. Combined Educational Model: A New Approach to Autism Intervention
Gulino D.

3. Prison and permanent liminality: how the experience of incarceration can eternalize non-place and non-time in a ritual-less adolescence
Maiorano A., De Fortuna A.M. and De Luca Picione R.
4. The Long and Arduous Journey of Inclusion in the Italian School System
Refrigeri G.
5. Intellectual disability: from symptoms to social inclusion. Preliminary data from a pilot study on school-work alternation and social inclusion from a life-span perspective
Ghiaccio R., Dragone D. and De Luca Picione R.
6. Needs, Risk Factors and Psychosocial Resources of Patients with Neurodevelopmental Diagnoses and Their Families. A Study Carried Out Through a Narrative Interview (Case History Methodology)
Paradisi S., Ricciardi G., De Fortuna M.A. and De Luca Picione R.
7. Transactional analytic treatment for abusive men
Varrella R.
8. Measuring inclusion of students with disability in European education systems: a comparative analysis of inclusiveness indicators; presentation of Italian case study
Guzzo I.
9. The Use of New Technologies for Inclusion in Vocational Institutions in Italy and France
Consalvo P. and Nicodemo G.
10. Enhancing Secondary Students Inclusion through Assistive Technologies and Virtual Reality
Passaro A., Zullo A., Di Gioia M., Curcio E. and Stasolla F.

LIGHT LUNCH 1:00 p.m.

Panel III LAW - 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. – room 23
Inclusion and Human Rights

Chair: Katia La Regina

1. Financial inclusion and contractual discrimination
Buzzelli D. and Spatuzzi A.
2. The inclusion of diversity in the perspective of antidiscrimination criminal law
Ucci S.
3. Social inclusion, between old and new poverty
Tarantino G.
4. La Costituzione tra pluralismo e inclusione
Albino L.
5. Affection in Prison
Chiola G.
6. Prison education and vocational training
La Regina K.
7. Digitization of public services and accessibility to them: a regulatory obligation but also a civic obligation
Picierno B.
8. Human rights, empowerment and inclusion: a challenge based on respect for human dignity
Miccio A.

Panel III MANAGEMENT & TECHNOLOGY - 2:00 p.m. – 3:30

p.m. – room 24
Gender Diversity

Chair: Federico De Andreis

- 1. Gender diversity and ESG
Cirleo E. and Iaquina P.
- 2. Navigating Special Occasions in Retail: Inclusive Strategies for Maximizing Demand, Supply, and Customer Satisfaction
Leopardi F.
- 3. Fintech Revolution for Women Entrepreneurs in Italy
Paoloni P. and Sevilla A.
- 4. Embedding gender in sustainability reports: current trends and future prospects
Paoloni P. and Cosentino A.
- 5. The value of relational capital in female-led micro tourism enterprises in the Sannio region
De Andreis F. and Taddeo S.
- 6. Implementing Gender Equality Certification in Italy: Evaluation of Key Performance Indicators and the Role of Accredited Certification Bodies
Procacci V.
- 7. Government Policies and International Frameworks in Combating Gender-Based Violence: The Impact of the Istanbul Convention and Women's Inclusion
Popescu L.
- 8. Inclusion and Gender Dynamics in the Literary Landscape: Women Writers in Southern Eastern Europe with a Focus on Romania
Mihaila R.
- 9. Tackling Gender-Based Violence: The Role of Sheltering Houses and Inclusion Programs for Women's Empowerment
Cîrstea M.

Panel III SOCIAL SCIENCES - 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. – room 18

Sociology, Inclusion and Gender Studies

Chair: Elvira Martini

- 1. Inclusion of people with disabilities in the labour market and the role of the Third Sector
Pacifico F.
- 2. Educating to Undo Gender
Lese E., Sabatini A. and Martini E.
- 3. No one saves themselves”: the other as the hallmark of contemporary society
Sabatini A. and Martini E.
- 4. The dark light of gender inclusion and sustainability
Pelliccia S.
- 5. What can man experience that artificial intelligence cannot reproduce?
D'Alessandro F.
- 6. Education and training for inclusion: towards a more just and respectful society of diversity
Santilli G.

7. Service Learning and Educational Inclusion: Integrating Educational-Social Practices
Sgambato M.C. and Martini E.
8. Social Media as a space for social inclusion: the experience of the Italian Hikikomori
Coppola M.

Panel IV LAW - 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. – room 23

Law and Inclusion Chair: AlessioGuasco

1. Inclusion in schools: evolution and criticality of Italian legislation
Aquino C.
2. Cultural accessibility: new strategies and possible regulatory solutions in the Campania region
Sansone M.
3. ESG Principles and Company Management
Marchisio E.
4. School inclusion and the religious factor in intercultural society
Ventrone A.
5. The importance of inclusion and ESG mechanisms
Palladino P. and Gazzella G.
6. Digitalisation and labour inclusion: Opportunities and Risks
De Pretis P.
7. Iurisdictioperegrina: a Roman paradigm of inclusion
Guasco A.

Panel IV MANAGEMENT & TECHNOLOGY - 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. – room 24 Technology and Inclusion Chair: UbaldoComite

1. LSTM Technology to estimate the entity of the most important causes of inclusion
Muserra P. and Monaco G.
2. Towards unified programming of EU financial resources - proposal and discussion elements for integrated management of future EU development programs
Centurelli G. and Filella A.
3. The Cooperatives of Valle del Bonamico: An Example of Best Practice in Social and Economic Reintegration
Fiorenza E. and Rusciano R.
4. The connection of social and environmental inclusion with business performance: a case study
Bianchi M.T., Ricco S. and de Socio R.
5. Innovative Strategies to Mitigate Regional Health Inequalities in Italy
Comite U., Gallo A.M. and Serluca M.C.
6. A gamification approach forelderly and disabled peoplecyber security awareness
Di Gioia G. and Tretola G.
7. Gender Equality in Italian Public Institutions: Strategies and Impacts in the PNRR Context
Comite U., Gallo A.M. and Greco L.

Panel IV SOCIAL SCIENCES - 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. – room

18

Educational Inequalities and Inclusive Learning Practices

Chair: Antonella Lopez

- 1. Trends in educational inequalities over time. A focus on the problem with the gender perspective
Lincini S.
- 2. System learning and inclusiveness in corporate governance: pedagogical orientations of research
Carbone M. and De Giuseppe T.
- 3. Co-responsibility in Education between school and family in cases of Parental Alienation Syndrome
Palleschi B.
- 4. Educational choreographies in an existential suburb, in the city of Rome
Lozuppone E.
- 5. The Way They Learn: a Dialogic Education for Inclusion
Ferrari M.
- 6. Educational Inclusion
Aiezza F.
- 7. Perceiving to perceive oneself
Chiofalo B.A.